

CHILDREN OF EDEN

From Stephen Schwartz (Godspell and Pippin) and John Caird of Les Miserables comes a joyous and inspirational musical about parents, children and faith... not to mention centuries of unresolved family business!

Freely based on the story of Genesis, Children Of Eden is a frank, heartfelt and often humorous examination of the age-old conflict between parents and children. Adam, Eve, Noah and the "Father" who created them deal with the headstrong, cataclysmic actions of their respective children. The show ultimately delivers a bittersweet, but inspiring message, that "the hardest part of love... is letting go."

The cast includes several HCP "veterans": Bonnie Raubenstine and Sarah Zimmermann each playing Mama Noah; Bob Henke as Noah; Brita Raubenstine as Eve; and Jim Watson as Father.

Some newer faces in the cast are: Mat Barninger as Adam, Zack Terrazas as Cain, Sasha Watson as Abel and Shem, Jeremy Slagle as Japeth, Kyle Meisner as Ham, Kelly McMaster as Aysha, Hannah Pollard as Aphra, Jenn Hilker as Yonah, and Lauren Swartz and Jenn Flohr as the snake.

Tammy Terrazas, Joann Luckenbaugh, Shelby

Cooke, Lauren King, Ashley Rummel, round out the cast.

Although the stories are biblical, the theme is more about family and fathers' trials with their sons as well as the forgiveness families struggle to find. With the underlying theme being about family, the cast shares several family bonds: Bonnie Raubenstine and daughter Brita, Tammy Terrazas and son Zack, and Jim Watson and son Sasha.

The show is directed by Jim Watson with musical direction by Sally Chase. Dancers from the School of Music and Dance will be choreographed by studio owner Lauren Swartz.

Show dates are Nov. 11-13 and 18-20 at 8 p.m. and a matinee on Sunday Nov. 14 at 2 p.m.

Tickets for the show are $12 and they are on sale at The Reader's Café. Discounts are available for students and seniors.

Don Aumen — President, Hanover Community Players

Community Theatres—America had only a few amateur acting companies prior to the Revolutionary War. These were mostly found in the larger cities, such as Boston. Community theatres didn't take off until the turn of the 20th century, when movies became popular. Theatre lovers in small communities still wanted the real thing—live theatre—and began to produce small groups of amateurs all across the country. First known as "Little Theatres" and later "community theatres," they commonly reflected their goals and ideals: to celebrate, promote and perform the dramatic arts, using the pooled talents and resources of the community. We at Hanover Community Players, are blessed to have such a talented core of people. We could use additional talent, whether it be as an actor, stage hand, seamstress, someone handy with a hammer, or paintbrush. This is your "community theatre." We have been around for 62 years and with your help and talents and hope to be here for another 62. If you would like to help in any way, have any questions or comments on how we can improve, call me at 632-0826.
