

Vanities by Jack Heifner

In 1963, three giddy cheerleaders and the most popular girls in school, live in their world where nothing is more important than the next football game or being voted queen of the school dance. Joanne speaks for them all when she says: "I can't imagine life without cheerleading." None of the girls knows a thing about football.

In 1968, college sorority sisters confront the uncertainty of life. Kathy will graduate to teach girls phys ed, Joanne will marry her high school sweetheart whom she followed to college, and free-spirited Mary plans to hitchhike through Europe.

Their reunion in 1974 shows that Joanne has changed very little. Her mantra is, "I always find it better not to think." Kathy quit teaching. "I couldn't teach my girls how to be peppy." Mary owns a very successful high-end art gallery that specializes in erotic art. The girls quickly realize that times change. Friends, inseparable in high school and college, may have nothing to say to one another just a few years after graduation.

Tickets are $11 and are on sale at The Reader's Café (125 Broadway, Hanover). Theatre goers may also place ticket orders online at www.HanoverLittleTheatre.com by clicking on the MyCommunityEvents link. Discounts are available for students and seniors. Visit our Web site for details on seating and tickets.

Changes happening at HCP

The Hanover Community Players are excited about some changes that will be implemented very soon. HCP made a venture to offer online ticketing a few years ago with growing success. We are now poised to implement a more robust ticketing system that will allow us to better service our patrons. We will also be able to keep records in one database which will be beneficial for lost or misplaced tickets, for memberships, and donations. Look for more information in the coming months. Our current timeline is to have everything ready to roll-out for our 64th season and the September show. Here is to HCP and moving forward into the 21st century.

Murder Mystery a sell out

HCP's third annual Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre was a sell out and helped us raise funds for our ongoing improvement projects.

With the help of a large cast that included Nikki Bull, Josh Bull, Sally Chase, Jeremy Slagle, Bonnie Raubenstine, Erin Dowling, Brian Shea, Cheri Henke, Heidi Hormel, Jonathan Carbaugh, Mathew Barninger, Audrey Landi and Nancy Wege, along with volunteers Don Aumen, Heather Kauffman and Mike Hoover, the evening was more successful than we had hoped. The Players' would also like to thank On the Go Cafe for its support and really tasty food.

As we begin thinking about next year's fourth annual murder mystery, we are looking for any suggestions from our audience and members. For example, we know that seating was tight because of the sell out, so maybe we should add a night? Also, we would like to keep the show near to Valentine's Day, but maybe there is a better time of year?

Please contact the Players with your suggestions and feedback at info@hanoverlittletheatre.com or call 717-632-5297 and leave a message.

Hanover Community Players, Inc.

360 Blooming Grove Road, Hanover, PA, 17331
www.HanoverLittleTheatre.com

NON-PROFIT ORG.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Permit No. 109
HANOVER, PA

CURRENT RESIDENT OR

Guys and Dolls

Music and Lyrics by Frank Loesser
Book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows

Auditions for Guys and Dolls —

Friday, April 6, 7–9 p.m. and Saturday, April 7, 10–12 (noon). Come prepared with a song that shows off your range and vocal talents. An accompanist will be available. Show dates are July 12–15 and 19–21. Directors will be Nikki Bull and Audrey Landi along with Sally Chase as Musical Director.

Guys and Dolls is a fable about what happens to gambling men and the women who long to tame them. Set in the colorful world of New York City in the mid 20th century, the romantic and funny Guys And Dolls is populated with gangsters and gamblers, missionary dolls and showgirls, and one the greatest musical scores in the history of American theatre.

HCP's 64th Season will soon be here...

Is there a particular show that you would like to see produced at the Hanover Little Theatre? Do you have a favorite author or genre of theatre that you especially enjoy watching? The Hanover Little Theatre is in the planning stage for our 64th season of live community theatre.

Help us to determine the direction or theme of shows for the upcoming year. Simply contact us at info@HanoverLittleTheatre.com and tell us what you like, dislike, enjoy, etc. Or perhaps you would like to sponsor a show or the entire season....we would be thrilled to hear from you as well. Help us to make our next season of shows great and entertaining for the Hanover area.