

Guys and Dolls

Music and Lyrics by Frank Loesser—Book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows

What do you get when you combine a group of gamblers, people in love, and the redemption of souls? Guys and Dolls, the classic musical which will come to life on our stage July 12–14 and 19–21 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, July 15 at 2 p.m. under the direction of Nikki Bull and Audrey Landi with musical director Sally Chase.

Besides the beloved “Luck Be a Lady,” “More I Cannot Wish You,” “Sit Down, You’re Rockin’ the Boat,” and many other toe-tapping songs, you’ll be entertained by our talented Hot Box Dancers, Mission Band and several other New York characters. Leading our cast are: Angela Wise (Adelaide), Anna Heckert (Sarah), Joe Reed (Nathan Detroit), and Jeremy Slagle (Sky Masterson) along with the zany trio of gamblers—Duane Bull (Benny Southstreet), Joel Cook (Rusty Charlie) and Dave Miller (Nicely-Nicely Johnson).

Tickets are $13 and are on sale at The Reader’s Café (125 Broadway, Hanover). Theatre goers may also place ticket orders online at www.HanoverLittleTheatre.com by clicking on the MyCommunityEvents link. Discounts are available for students and seniors. Visit our Web site for details on seating and tickets.

Picnic Time at Little Theatre

The Hanover Community Players’ annual picnic and meeting will be held Sunday, June 24, beginning at 4 p.m. at the Hanover Little Theatre.

The theatre will provide broasted chicken and drinks. Picnic goers should bring a covered dish. Remember all members of the Players are invited.

After the meal, the annual meeting will be held where we announce our season and elect board members and officers.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP to 717-637-5297 or info@HanoverLittleTheatre.com.

New Ticketing System to be Implemented

Hanover Little Theatre is making plans to implement a new ticketing system for the 2012–2013 season. The Vendini upgrade will allow a more accurate and interactive ticketing experience for our patrons. Patrons will be able to select their exact seats from an online “live” seating chart; elect to print a confirmation receipt or E-Tickets; even sign up for a membership. Don’t fret...we will also be providing services to our non-computer patrons as well. Specific details will be forthcoming... just in time for the Season Membership kick-off. Our goal is to make this technological move while providing a more dynamic and positive theatre experience for our community.

Thank you for your continued support!

Yard Sale at Hanover Little Theatre

On Saturday, June 23, from 7 a.m.–2 p.m. there will be a yard sale fundraiser in our parking lot. Several independent vendors (board and cast members) will be selling books, clothing, home décor, jewelry, etc. In addition, tables of baked goods, drinks, and other yard sale items will be available with all proceeds benefitting the theatre.

If you'd like to donate baked goods or yard sale items for the theatre's tables or assist us the day of the sale, please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Brandon O'Donnell (717-968-2316) or Audrey Landi (717-624-7028). Please plan to come and support our efforts to keep the arts in our community.
