

Nunsense

A Musical Comedy
Book, Music, and Lyrics by
Dan Coggin

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

In September of 1992, Jim Watson introduced the Hanover Little Theater to the musical Nunsense. The theater has invited Jim to recreate Nunsense, a 20th anniversary production, as the opening show of the 2012-2013 season. Luckily, Jim was able to bring back two other members of the original ensemble: Kimm Cooper as the accompanist and Bonnie Raubenstein as Sister Mary Amnesia.

The Little Sisters of Hoboken, a one-time missionary order that ran a leper colony on an island south of France, discover that their cook, Sister Julia, Child of God, accidentally killed fifty-two residents of the convent with her tainted vichyssoise soup while several other members of the order were off playing bingo with a group of Maryknolls. Upon discovering the disaster, Mother Superior had a vision in which she was told to start a greeting card company to raise funds for the burials. The greeting cards were an enormous success and, thinking there was plenty of money, the Reverend Mother bought a DVD player for the convent, leaving her with no money in the kitty to pay for the last four burials. With the deceased nuns on ice in the deep freeze, they decide to stage a variety show in the Mount Saint Helen's School auditorium to raise the necessary amount.

The Cast: Reverend Mother, Ann Watson; Sister Mary Hubert, Vicki Bohn; Sister Mary Amnesia, Bonnie Raubenstein; Sister Robert Anne, Lauren Swartz; Sister Mary Leo, Kendra Swartz; Sister Mary Kitty, Sally Chase; Sister Mary Hosanna, Ginni Hasener; Sister Mary Ethel, Joanne Luckenbaugh. Show Dates: September 13-15 and 20-22 at 8 p.m. and the 16th at 2 p.m. Tickets are $14 and are on sale online at www.HanoverLittleTheatre.com.
