

Dealing with family can get pretty complicated. That's the lesson in this season's second show, the dram-edy "Over the River and Through the Woods."

Nick is a single, Italian-American guy from New Jersey. His parents retired and moved to Florida, but he can't escape his family. Nick sees both sets of his grandparents every Sunday for dinner, but dreads when he has to reveal his plans to move to Seattle for his dream job.

When Nick shares the news, the grandparents begin a series of schemes to keep him around. Frank, Aida, Nunzio and Emma do their level best, and that includes bringing the lovely—and single—Caitlin O'Hare to dinner.

Beau Bowden makes his HLT debut as Nick surrounded by faces familiar to regular members of our audience.

OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOODS

Don Aumen and Phyllis Reinsfelder will play Frank and Aida. Mike Baker and Ann Watson play Nunzio and Emma. Anna Heckert will take the stage as Caitlin.

Directed by Jim Watson with assistance from Jeremy Slagle, the show runs Nov. 14-17 and 21-23. The opening night reception will be sponsored by Rose's Pizza & Restaurant. Tickets are on sale now so make sure you get your seat for this funny and touching story.

Written by Joe DiPietro

Performance Dates: November 14-16 and 21-23 at 8:00 pm;
November 17 at 2:00 pm

Directed by: Jim Watson; Assistant Director: Jeremy Slagle

Tickets: $12 Adult; $11 Student/Sr. Citizen

Bright Lights

As the old saying goes, the show must go on. We had to live up to that adage while preparing for the first show of this season. During rehearsals, the light board went kaput. We managed to work with a vendor to obtain a temporary replacement through the seven performances.

The HLT board has since purchased a new lighting console which we hope will last us for many years. Circumstances like this are exactly why we appreciate your monetary donations so much. If you have any questions about making a donation, please call us at 717-637-5297 or e-mail info@hanoverlittletheatre.com.

President's Message...

Our 65th season got off to a great start, with near-to-sell-out crowds at "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change." Audiences can expect more of the same touching, heartfelt comedy in the November show, "Over the River and Through the Woods." Read all about the cast and the show in this Ad-Lib.

I also want to tell you about the new placard and plant in our front flower bed. This memorial is for the late Jean Ecker, who was a long-time Hanover Little Theatre board member, director, actress, supporter, and gardener. She is greatly missed.

See you at the theatre!

Heidi Hormel, 2013-14 HLT Board President

Ron Schloyer ...

Anyone involved with music or theatre in the Hanover community has likely been influenced by Ron Schloyer. A former HLT board member and regular director, he also served as a music teacher in the Hanover Public School District and directed shows there and at Littlestown High School.

Ron passed away on October 13 after suffering a cardiac arrest in early September. The HLT Board of Directors has decided to dedicate "Over the River and Through the Woods," a show he directed in 2002, in Ron's memory. We are keeping Ron's wife Roxonne, and his entire family in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.